FRIDAY, MAY 11, 1900.

CALL OFF THE DOGS!

The fact should not be overlooked that the State of Ohio is the plaintiff in the bribery proceedings against Mr. Garber, now on trial in the Court house.

The great majority of Akron's citizens want to see even-handed justice done in the case, without interference from the partisans of either side.

For this reason the Democrat has withheld all comment upon the case, during the progress of the trial, believing that it has done its duty to the people by presenting to them complete, unprejudiced and accurate accounts of the proceedings.

There are a great many citizens of Akron whose opinions of the real merits of the Garber case are not drawn from the garbled reports and the misleading statements that are appearing nightly in the organ of Dobson, but for the benefit of those who may be deceived, the trial court owes it to the people and the state to make an example of the organ which is hounding and persecuting the men who are the chosen instruments of the state in making the prosecution.

NOT A TRUST.

Attorney General Monnett, who devoted most of his time while in office to an effort to enforce the Ohio Anti-Trust law against the Standard Oil company, and who lost his office for his pains, must be well pleased to note the preparations that are being made by his successor to dismiss the proceedings against the great oil trust.

In the motion for the dismissal of the proceedings brought by Monnett, it is claimed that "the Standard Oil company is no longer a trust; it is simply a corporation," and hence not liable under the Anti-Trust law.

The new Attorney General considers this technical point very well taken and will make nothing more than a perfunctory objection to the dismissal.

This proposed decision of the Supreme court will be right in line with the declaration of another eminent authority, Senator Mark Hanna, who declared in a speech a few months ago that "there are no trusts; they are simply combinations of capital." The people generally do not care a rap by what name the trusts are called so long as they have to suffer from the evil effects of trust operation; and this is likely to be very evident next fall to the political party that has devoted the whole of its four years of power to encouraging the operation of the trusts at the expense of the people.

Comptroller of the Currency Dawes told the exact truth when he declared, in his speech as chairman of the Republican State convention of Illinois, that the masses of the people of all political parties were in favor of the enactment of legislation by Congress for the regulation of the trusts, and that the suppression of trusts which destroy competition and enhance oppressively the prices of the necessities of life—Cleveland Leader.

This being the sentiment of the people—and it must be for the Leader never errs—why has not the Administration at Washington, in its four years of power, done something toward providing the people the necessary relief legislation. The people have been paying pretty dearly for their folly of providing the White House as an abiding place for trusts.

Every day or so some Republican editorial idiot mounts his tripod and "views with alarm" the proposition to remove the tariff protection and thus restrict or destroy trusts that are robbing the people. Such a proposition, he exclaims, would be a concession to the free trade idea and must not be tolerated even for a moment; all this notwithstanding that the excessive charges of one tariffed trust in particular, the paper trust, have made a ruinous inroad upon the profits of the newspaper which supports the editor. For such heroic sacrifice of self for the supposed benefit of party the people who are also sufferers from trust operation can have nothing but pity; they cannot have admiration.

The esteemed Cleveland Leader is too full of joy over the nomination of

G. W. TUCKER, M.D. 130 South Main St.

On account of double vision and headaches, I was compelled to lay off from work for several weeks past. The suffering and misery endured was beyond description. I sought relief in every way suggested until my friends recommended and insisted upon my seeing Dr. Tucker (the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist), which I did after a searching and trying examination. He made a special glass for my eye which has relieved and entirely cured me.

Judge Beidler of Lake to sing much in eulogy at the political funeral of the ill-fated Congressman Phillips, of Medina. "Judge Phillips," says our Cleveland neighbor, "has discovered that the game politics is never ended until it is played out."

* * * Cleveland will therefore be the gainer. This is like rubbing salt into a fresh wound, but the Medina patriots are wonderfully apt at recovering from wounds inflicted for their party's sake. They are still voicing for Lincoln over there and don't seem to know the difference between a boss and a leader.

If Lawyer Dobson thinks that without the guidance of his great forensic talent and advice the Judge and Jury will be unable to decide the Garber case as it ought to be, let him join the Bar Association and proceed with the advisory business in a regular way. But until that time, Attorney Sam Rogers, and Senator Sieber, with the assistance of the unapproachable Simon Crohn, "of the Ohio Legislature," seem to be competent to take care of the defense. They should not be hampered by too much counsel.

"Were you ever a member of the Ohio Legislature?" asked Col. Sieber of Gen. Chas. M. Anderson, of Greenville, one of the witnesses at the Garber trial.

"No, sir," was the emphatic reply. "I've been pretty low in my life, but not that low."

And Col. Sieber was sorry he spoke.

The son of the brilliant Congressman F. O. Phillips, of Medina, has set at last. But it will be just as the Democrat predicted more than six months ago when it became evident the Medina barrister would be defeated—he will line up next fall and shout and vote for the old ticket as joyfully as Uncle Mark himself.

"Judge Phillips frankly acquits Mr. Beidler of having schemed to bring about the result," says the party organ at Cleveland. "There is no reason why his friends should not take the same view of the matter." They will. Only give them time to put in a respectable season of mourning.

The citizens of Akron who have been looking for uncolored, ungarbled, and accurate accounts of the progress of the Garber trial have had to read the Democrat to find them.

Norton's Friends Very Much In Evidence.

Nominated J. A. Beidler on Third Ballot.

Medina's Candidate Needed Only One More Vote

When Stampede to Beidler Was Made—Remarkable Convention.

Cleveland, May 11.—(Spl.)—The Republicans of the Twentieth Congressional District nominated J. A. Beidler of Willoughby, Lake county for Congress Thursday. The convention was one of the most remarkable ever held in Cleveland. The defeat of Judge F. O. Phillips of Medina county for re-nomination is the result of the action of the delegates from his county at the Republican Judicial convention one week ago.

Mr. Beidler was nominated on the third ballot, securing five more votes than were necessary. On the second ballot Congressman Phillips lacked only one vote of securing his re-nomination. On the first ballot, Mr. Beidler received but one vote, but after the result of the second ballot had been announced, the convention was stampeded in his behalf. Mayor C. E. Bolton, of East Cleveland, who was a candidate before the convention, received but four votes on the last ballot. On the second ballot, all of Bolton's delegates, with the exception of 17, cast their votes for Mr. Beidler, and on the final ballot, 13 more Bolton delegates threw their support to Mr. Beidler. Also on the last ballot ten delegates who had voted for Phillips on the previous ballot, cast their votes for Beidler.

Three votes were cast for Rev. J. S. Rutledge, of Glenville, on the first ballot, but on the second ballot the three Rutledge votes were cast for Phillips. The convention was held at Star Turn Hall, on Kenilworth street.

The friends of J. A. Beidler captured nearly everything in sight, and it was only through poor political foresight that they failed to capture every nomination. I. P. Lamson was placed in nomination for delegate to the National Republican convention by the friends of Mr. Phillips, and was elected. R. C. Moody, of Lake county, a Beidler candidate for delegate, was also elected. Captain E. J. Kennedy, the choice of the Beidler people for Presidential elector, was nominated. The friends of Mr. Beidler will control the new Congressional committee.

Referring to his defeat, Judge Phillips said:

"It was simply city politics. Mr. Garfield and his friends remained by me to the end. I do not blame Mr. Beidler directly for my defeat, but if, like Mr. Garfield, he had been at the convention for the purpose of preventing his name from going before it, I think I would have been renominated."

A Lesson in Clothing

Can you buy clothing? What do you know about it? Precious little. Few people do. We can't be clothing experts, and none but clothing experts can tell a thing about it. You and others simply judge by appearances from

The Outside

All new clothing looks well. It's pressed smoothly—but how about the wear of it? That depends upon

The Inside

The workmanship, the trimmings and the designing. You can't see them. They're hidden and you will know about these essentials after a few weeks' wear. Then, however, it's too late. without a doubt. I think that my defeat for the renomination is more the result of the Republican judicial convention last Saturday. The friends of Mr. Norton were mad because Medina county did not vote for him in the convention, although I tried my best to secure votes for him on the Medina county delegation. They were not taking revenge on me particularly, but rather on Medina county. I expect to return to Washington next Saturday. Naturally, I do not feel much like undertaking any new work in Congress in order to have some one else finish it."

Platform Says Republicans Are Drifting Into Imperialism.

Sioux Falls, S. D., May 11.—(Spl.)—The national Populist convention concluded its session at 1 o'clock this morning and adjourned sine die after nominating the Hon. W. J. Bryan for President and the Hon. Charles A. Towne for Vice President.

The nomination of Mr. Towne was only accomplished after a struggle of several hours' duration, in which an effort was made to have the question of the nomination of a Vice Presidential candidate referred to a committee to confer with the Democratic party in its national convention. A motion to this effect was defeated by a vote of 268 to 492.

Both candidates were nominated by acclamation, but before the resolution was reached various candidates were placed in nomination, and their names successively withdrawn. Both nominations were accomplished amid scenes of enthusiasm.

The platform consists of a preamble and a long series of resolutions. The preamble congratulates the People's party on the marvelous growth of its principles during the last four years among people of all political parties this condition the platform says gives renewed hope and courage for the future, in the efforts of the party to avert the subversion of free institutions by corporate power, and to resist the eventual purpose of the Republican party to establish a strongly centralized imperial government.

The resolutions on imperialism and militarism deplore the conduct of the administration in the Spanish war, and denounce its conduct in connection with the Philippines. Referring to the latter matter they say it is in conflict with all the precedents of our national life, at war with the Constitution, and without reasonable excuse. Demand is made for the cessation of this war. In reference to this connection, to Porto Rico, it is declared that the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution and the American flag are one and inseparable. It is also declared that the island of Porto Rico is a part of the territory of the United States, made so by our promises and the consent of the people of Porto Rico themselves.

The increase of the standing army is denounced as wholly unwarranted by the conditions of the country, and it is asserted that this tendency will inevitably result in an unnecessary burden on the taxpayers. There is a strong resolution of sympathy for the Boers, a declaration against the monopolizing of public land for speculative purposes, a demand for a return to the original homestead policy a declaration for the placing of all goods controlled by the trusts upon the free tariff list.
